stealing long piping" will be the big head-lines, cause you'd know what that would be for..? (screws in the nuts)

Hell, those bloody hypocrites claim their assults had grey beards, the cops didn't think that when they tried to pin me on that Melleville Island assult, ~~at~~ it happened years ago. the cops witness fell over on his face in the witness box — dead drunk — that onended up in the rubbish-box too, Oh, almost forgot to mention, I won a few, lose a few, too.

You like my tales, this is one of my best, a mob of black-fellas were having a drunken punch-up, for no other reason then that they were pissed. The old mangy camp-dog became excited and raced into the mallee and ~~and~~ "heeled" a few legs ~~protrudings~~ protruding out of the dust.

It wasn't long before one of the "heeled" ones gave away fighting and gave the mong a boot in the ribs.

As if by signal the fighting stopped.
