

Fred Fogarty (white T-shirt) chairs a meeting between the Aboriginal Land Rights Commissioner Justice A E Woodward (seated, centre) and members of the Gwalwa Daraniki Movement at the Kulaluk camp on 2nd June 1973. Representatives from Knuckeyes Lagoon, One Mile Dam (Railway Dam) and Kulaluk are wearing red headbands. Seated at the table is Dr Nicholas Peterson with the Commissioner's secretary, Valentine McGinness second from left, rear, in white shirt and tie. Paspalis Drive-in cinema screen far left background. Tommy Lyons front right, long grey hair.

Bill Day holds a one-man protest in Darwin's Smith Street in April 1985 following the destruction of Fred Fogarty's house at Fish Camp which began immediately following Fred's mysterious death.