

Ald. Waters with the plan of the Ludmilla area.

An aerial picture taken this week of the proposed Ludmilla tip. The prepared tip area is in the foreground with houses from part of the suburb directly above it . . . then Bagot Road and a RAAF hangar at top.

The dump area being prepared at Ludmilla. Heavy rains churned up the cleared area.

Illustration 6 , above left: Darwin City council Mayor, Alderman Ken waters displays proposed plans for land fill site after completion of Ludmilla Dump. Plans seem to indicated a golf course and park land. NT News, January 1, 1971, page 6.

Illustration 7, above right: An aerial photograph of the dump site in 1972, showing access from the suburb of Ludmilla North via Fitzer Drive, Bagot Road (top) and above Bagot Road, the Darwin RAAF Base. The connector road, named Dick Ward Drive, was constructed a decade later, running from the northern suburbs to Fannie Bay and crossing between the dump site and the suburb of Ludmilla North. NT News, January 14, 1972, p. 6.

Illustration 8 bottom left: Excavations in preparation for the Darwin City Council garbage dump in Ludmilla. Photo from NT News December 32, 1971, page 6.