DISTRICT WELFARE OFFICER 1st July 1970

INSPECTION OF ABORIGINAL CAMPS IN THE DARWIN AREA

From the 22nd to 25th June, 1970, an inspection and survey of Aboriginal camps within the Darwin area was carried out. Detailed hereunder are the various camps visited and the occupants of these camps.

1. One Mile DAM and Japanese Beach Area

There were 15 people living in this area. This number always varies considerably and in the main is composed of Delissaville people. At the time of inspection, the following people were present:

1. Bruce Pott, Darwin, Delissaville, not working.
2. Norman Harris, Delissaville, not working.
3. Peggy Gurridge? (Wilson), Darwin, Delissaville, not working.
4. Alec Garaji, Murinbada?, Port Keats (husband of Kitty Pressley), not working.
5. Nym Adelaide, Delissaville, not working.
6. Freddy Frederick Darrokish, Pensioner.
7. Eve Martin, Delissaville, not working.
8. Elsie Lamurr (ROW Harmoru?), Delissaville, not working.
9. Maggie Cunmurul, Delissaville, not working.
10. Roy Madbulk, Delissaville (works occasionally), with Syd Hawke on the Larraman.
11. Jacky Jacky, Pidirr, Delissaville, not working.
12. Dennis Ngadji, Murinbada, Port Keats, youth of about 20 yrs, not working. Married man, wife Concepta at Port Keats, not working.

Also present were three part coloureds. Two women, a young girl Alice Tamwoy from Queensland, pregnant and, and a woman named Louie from W.A.. Another part Torres Strait Island man named Eddie Ware was also present. He claims to be working but has hurt his back.

TOTAL NUMBER 15.

This area can hardly be described as a camp, as the occupants are simply living in the mangroves without any shelter. The area is strewn with broken bottles and glass, but by nightfall, most of the occupants are in such a condition that they would probably be content to sleep on the broken glass.
