

LEONARD OSBORNE DAY – TIME LINE OF HIS LIFE IN SIAM

1904	November 16	Notice of marriage DAY – SLADE on 14 November	The West Australian paper Perth.
1905	November 7	Mr and Mrs Leo Day residents at the Hotel de l'Europe, Singapore	Eastern Daily Mail
1909	June 8	Leo and Estelle divorced
1910	September 8	Report listing Leo Day as the Deputy Harbour Master at Koh-si-Chang	Singapore Free Press
1910	November 11	Report that Assistant Superintendent Leo Day, in charge Of the police station and reformatory at Koh si Chang, Siam, Has arrived in Bangkok suffering from two stabs, one in the chest and the other in the side, which had been inflicted upon him by a convict.	The Straits Times
1911	January 21	Report of a serious accident to Mr Leo Day, Assistant Superintendent of Police stationed at Koh-si-Chang. Fired A rocket which went off in his face, knocking out one of His eyes.... Possible that he will lose the sight of both eyes.	Singapore Free Press
1911	August 13	Birth of Richard George Day
1912	July 12	Birth of Ledah May Day
1913	July 9	Embarked London for Singapore – Officer Military police	Find my past
1914	November 19	Birth of Patricia Martha Day
1915	February 20	Embarked London for Singapore – Siamese Police	Ancestry
1916	October 24	Birth of Phoebe Eva Day
1917	August 1917	Marriage Leo to Martha Hendricks at Bangkok If you Google the place of residence Koh Si Chang you will find it is an island. You will also find associated with the island the names Nang and Tham, the latter being a cave.	Marriage certificate
1818	February 7	Embarked Singapore for Freemantle – Major	Ancestry
1919	February 26	Report that Capt H Reginald Day, brother of Major Leo Day, arrived in Bangkok	Singapore Free Press
1920	January 5	Major Leo Day accompanies a party of Zoological collectors On an extensive tour of north eastern Siam. Expected to be Away some three months.	Singapore Free Press
1920	July 9	Birth of Ethel Kraisee Day
1920	September 9	Baptism of all five children at St Mary' Church, Bangkok

1921	September 6	Report of the tragic death of Capt H Reginald Day on 27 August who drowned in two feet of water.	The Straits Times
1922	December 9	Embarked Singapore for Freemantle - Major	Ancestry
1926	June 4	Major Leo Day, who contracted cholera, is progressing favourably	The Straits Times
1926	June 15	Major Leo Day on medical advice is shortly taking a months leave for a sea trip	Singapore Free Press
1927	June 17	Report of the death of Major Leo Day. Enjoyed his pension for little over a year. Many years in charge of the Reformatory at Kohsichang island, known to all the shipping folk as the harbour master. (The report was written 11 June in Bangkok)	Singapore Free Press
1927	June 11	Burial of Leo at Ban Mai cemetery.

NOTES:-

Leo is always referred to as a Major yet a photograph lists him as a Lieutenant Colonel?

Did Leo's brother live on the island? Had he left his wife?

Ban Mai is a place in North East Thailand, some 350 miles from Bangkok.

06 May 2014