Samuel Day's death certificate. (proving elusive)

Searched from 1877 (a year before the birth of Phoebe's youngest son, up to 1891 inclusive (Phoebe was listed as widowed in the 1891 census). I could find no deaths with the right age. Samuel's age is well documented and is accurately referenced in all census returns where he is present. It also matches with the age given on the marriage certificate. Additionally I have conducted this search twice to make sure I haven't missed any entries. This leaves two possibilities. Either the GRO index is incorrect or he died overseas. He was not listed as (deceased) on William John Day's marriage certificate in 1884, and there is a family tradition that Phoebe brought up the family single handed. Also it is alleged that he left Phoebe and went to South Africa with the maid!. His eldest son Samuel Franklyn Hubert Day, emigrated to South Africa so there is a connection.

Day, William, Personal Estate £4,109 12s

The will of William Day of Ashford-road Maidstone in the county of Kent Gentleman who died 25 January 1885 at Ashford-road was proved at the Principal Registry by William Day of Ashford-road Auctioneer and Joseph Day of 23 High-street Maidstone gentleman the sons the executors.

Note: Samuel is not named as an executor. as the second son, it would have been likely that he would have been an executor if the third son Joseph is. Therefore it may be that he had already died by this date or had emigrated.

From Adrian McKellar 2006- Finally have copies of Samuel Days Death Notice and Liquidation/distribution accounts. Will send other pages over next few days. Mentions he is married but not to whom. There is a claim for 200 pounds by William and Joseph Day against estate. His sister Rebecca Steer ( Day) has signed as the nearest relative.

The late Samuel Day

From Mike Day 2006 - I note that the list of Samuel's children isn't quite right, but then I don't suppose Rebecca his sister, could be expected to remember them all.

Percy Thomas should be Percy Robert, and Ernest should be Leonard. Ernest Septimus died aged 2 in 1867.

According to Dad, the Bartlett's were from Stopham in Sussex, and were originally descended from French Huguenots called either Bartello or Bartelot who possibly came from Azay le Rideau.

According to Mum, Phoebe had to bring up her family single handed after Samuel died when their youngest child was about 2 years old. She made a living by teaching the piano. According to William Bartlett Day, however, He did not die at this time but ran off with the maid to South Africa.

According to Dad, Frank Day served in the army in South Africa during both the Zulu and Boer Wars.

He also worked for de Beers in some capacity. During the Boer War he buried some de Beers diamonds to protect them from theft during the conflict. Afterwards on returning them to de Beers he was rewarded with nothing more than a letter of thanks.

From letter from his daughter: "I want to bring father's coffin & have it buried with mother's"

Samuel's will leaves everything to his daughter. Whereabouts of son not known.

Inscriptions on photos held by Mike Day in England 2005:

Here is the first of my collection of photographs of Samuel Franklyn Day. This one is not inscribed in any way and is not dated. It was printed at the photographic studio of J Trim, late Gray Bros., Kimberley Diamond Fields, South Africa.

This one is not dated, but is inscribed on the front, "Yours Affectly. Frank". It was printed by C. Dickinson, Photographer, Port Elizabeth.

This one is dated and inscribed as follows: "January 1909. On way to Elizabeth Bay from Luderitzbricht prospecting for diamonds. S F Day, I Ginsberg with Horse, Mule & donkey & cart carrying water, provisions & necessary tools. Messrs. Danziger & Party with Horses & Cart."

I am afraid I got mixed up with photo number 3. (A senior moment). The text I sent with it belongs with this photo (number 5.) I have repeated it here, and I will send a another e-mail to describe photo 3.

This one is dated and inscribed on the back as follows: "Frontier Light Horse. Returned from Zululand & Transvaal to Pietermaritzburg 26/4/80". It is additionally inscribed on the front, "Your Aff. Son Frank". It was printed at the Natal photographic studio, H Kisch, photographer & artist, Maritzburg, Natal.

All,

This one is inscribed and dated on the back as follows: "S F Day 1896 to Willie" (my great-grandfather and S F Day's brother, William John Day). Note that it was taken at the Talma studio, 119 Swanston Street, Melbourne, Victoria in Australia. I assume that he was visiting his brother Arthur Joseph Day in Melbourne at this time.

Dear Tom,

Thank you so much for your letter. At present I'm up in Rhodesia. I came up with the Burrs for a month's change as I'm very much "run down" just now. We're a few miles out of Selukwe on a lovely farm with such a nice swimming bath a few yards from the house & everyone is so nice to everyone else. Mother & I were here for several years & she was buried in Selukwe. Later on I want to bring Father's coffin & have it buried with Mother's. The Gold "Spec" which Father was interested in is going ahead very well. It all looks so promising. The two men who have it always let me know how things are going on as they say if it's a success, I'm to have Father's share as they thought such a lot of him. Even if we didn't have any luck, at least both Mother & Father were absolutely straight.

Dear Aunt Pem,

I am sorry I've been such a time in answering your letter. I've been so unsettled. After having written to you I returned to Matatiele fixed up my things there & returned to Johannesburg, where I started work at the Chronic Sick House. I was there for two months but I couldn't stand "Chronic" work so I left. Now I'm in Rhodesia for a change. It's very nice up here & altho' the rainy season is 'on' we can do quite a lot between the showers. I came up with the Burrs & as Mr Burr has to be back in J'bg on the 9th Jan. we will leave on the 6th, Sorry it couldn't be a bit longer. Mrs Taylor has known me since I came from Sweden & Mrs Burr since I was 10 so you see I'm with very old friends & they're so good to me. I hope I'll see you one day. Things happen so unexpectedly so I might find myself in England, who knows? These native girls* are typical of Rhodesia.

Love to all & best wishes for the New Year

Notes for Hubert Bartlett Day:

General Notes:

Hubert Bartlett Day charged with child neglect!

Below is a little item about my grandfather Hubert that has come to light from the 1912 police occurrences book of York, now held by the Battye Library in Perth, WA. The item is copied here exactly as written by the police. A friend of mine found this reference while doing research on another matter and photocopied the page for me. It seems it was a serious offence in 1912 for the father to forget to have his children vaccinated. Remember there were some deadly diseases around like the one that killed Hubert and Evelyn's first baby, Harold, on 25th June 1897. Perhaps by the seventh child the parents were getting a bit complacent. I am sure Hubert would have relied on Evelyn to remind him, but the breadwinner is the one who was charged. I doubt that he would have had any particular reason for failing to get his youngest son (my father) vaccinated and I am sure the matter was quickly rectified.

Charges taken at the Police Station, District of York, November 1912.

The christening date cannot be correct as only two of the children were born in 1912. From the age of the baby (6 weeks) we can deduce that the photograph was taken in late August 1920. It is therefore possible that Leonard meant to write 5-9-1920 as the christening date

Estelle Katherine Slade is the daughter of John George Slade and Frances Beaumont Southgate. She was born 1878.

Notes for Estelle Katherine Slade:

General Notes:

Estelle signed as a witness on the marriage certificate of Harry Day and Jessie Mackay in 1897 Heather Day wrote to Bill Day in september 1988: ' [Your] great Grandmother Phoebe was a concert pianist who gave up her career when she married and bore eleven sons all in rotation ... Deserted by her husband, she had to raise and educate them all which by a miracle she did teaching instead she gave most a professional career in medicine, dentistry, chemistry and your great uncle Leonard became a major in the British Army in Bangkok til he died, also in early life ... a real 'pukka Saab' type military bearing and a Kaiser Bill moustache to boot. He often spent his annual furlough with us in Northam, as he was ostracised by his English family in England for marrying the favourite niece, Tham, in Siam of the then King of Siam (the same king as in the film, The King and I). She bore the title of Princess too, bestowed on her because she was the King's favourite. Uncle Leonard loved mother and dad because they were so understanding and welcomed him. His English wife refused to live in Siam and returned to England, the hot climate and she an English rose, I can't blame her. Uncle Leonard wanted his two sons educated at Guildford Grammar school but it was taboo due to our then 'White Australia policy.'

Leonard Osborne Day and Estelle Katherine Slade. They were married on 14 Nov 1904 in Registrar's office Fremantle. Divorce on 08 Jun 1909 in Perth WA. Reference ID was 1909/279. They had no children.
